

Contents

ABOUT THE EDITORS.....	7
ABOUT THE WORKSHOP LEADER.....	9
INTRODUCTION.....	11
Luc Zwartjes How to activate the pupils.....	12
Luc Zwartjes Bilingual teaching (CLIL) in Flanders.....	19
Stuart Shaw International assessment of Geography through the medium of English: analysing the language skills required.....	24
Stefan Hesske Bilingual (Geography) education in Switzerland.....	45
Josué Llull CLIL in University Context. Teaching Geography to Bilingual Teaching Trainees.....	49
Martijn Kaal The Amsterdam region – the heartland of culture, tourism and economy in the Netherlands.....	55
Aleksandra Zaparucha Top-down (Qatar) vs. Bottom-up (Poland) In-Service CLIL Teacher Training.....	63
Małgorzata Byca Syllabus requirements and the regional Geography education at the secondary school level.....	77

Anna Krzemińska-Kaczyńska, Hugh Bilton, Jolanta Krzemińska Geography and English Project: cooperation between rural and urban schools	85
Sławomir Kubas The application of blended learning in teaching natural sciences on the example of the Youth e-Academy of Maths and Natural Sciences in Kraków	97
Magdalena Ratajczak-Szczerba, Martyna Olkowska River action. Its effect on an example of a big and a small river in a town and its vicinity	101
Iwona Piotrowska The didactic LdL model (Lernen durch Lehrnen; Learning by Teaching) as a way to learn regional Geography	120
Małgorzata Cichoń How to teach regional Geography today – SWOT analysis	126