

Contents

Introduction	4
I. Global political and demographic changes	5
1. Globalisation in the modern world	5
2. Changes to the world political map	11
3. World population distribution	17
4. Contemporary demographic changes	24
5. Migration: causes and destinations	30
6. Diversity in urbanisation	38
7. Global cities: development and consequences	44
8. Civilisation and tradition in world development	52
II. Variations in world economies	61
1. Global social and economic inequalities	61
2. Aid given to areas affected by crisis	68
3. Variations in world agriculture	76
4. Variations in human nutrition	85
5. Changes in rural areas	92
6. Forest management	97
7. Maritime economy	104
8. Importance of energy resources	111
9. New forms of industrial organisation	118
10. Changing labour market	125
11. Developments in tourism	129
12. Importance of transport in the world	140
13. Telecommunications: in the economy and in everyday life	146
14. Processes integrating the world	150
III. Sustainable development	158
1. Environmental imbalance	158
2. Areas of water surplus and water deficit	163
3. Human impact on climate change	167
4. Consequences of the exploitation of soils	172
5. Changes in relations between mankind and the environment	176
Glossary	184
Insert maps:
World political map
Largest cities and national population densities (in 2009).....	16/17
World map of gross domestic product by country (in 2010)
World physical map	64/65
World map of economic organisations
Global ecological crisis and selected environmental disasters	160/161